LEADER FOR ART

Salary: MPS / UPS (Fringe), TLR 1 (a)

Are you an aspirational Teacher looking for a new opportunity? Do you have a proven track record as an outstanding classroom practitioner?

We are looking to appoint an exceptional, enthusiastic and dedicated professional, with drive and ambition, to join our dynamic Art Department as Head of Art. The position provides an exciting opportunity in a school which is committed to high quality teaching and learning and student success. As an outstanding teacher who has high aspirations, energy and commitment to work with the staff and students at our school you will play a key role as we move to the next stage in our development to achieve even greater success.

As Head of Art you will have excellent interpersonal skills, a proven record of raising standards, be innovative and inspiring and have the relevant skills to turn ideas and opportunities into success. You will be forward thinking, capable of inspiring students and staff through your passion for the subject and have a firm belief in the potential of all. The Arts department is made up of a team of enthusiastic, talented, dedicated teachers and a technician. Art is taught across all Key Stages and the ability to teach Fine Art, Graphic Art and/or Photography/Digital Art to KS5 is desirable.
