Drum lessons with Ian Sands at Chalfonts Community College

Hi, I am Ian, the drum tutor at Chalfont's.

I'm a professional musician and qualified drum/percussion tutor. I have been teaching drums and percussion for over 18 years.

I teach and play all styles of contemporary music. If they wish, I can lead pupils through the Rockscool Graded drum exam course's and help them with their GCSE and A level music exams.

All of my pupils are given PDF files of my teaching notes and 100's of MP3 of play-along pop & rock tracks, bass lines and tracks of my own charts to both inspire and encourage them to practice.

I can offer either individual or shared lessons. The lesson options and prices are:

- 30min lesson of individual tuition at £20 each
- 20min lesson of individual tuition at £14 each
- 30min lesson of shared* or group tuition from £11 each

(Prices correct September 2019)

Shared tuition = 2 pupils sharing, subject to a suitable partner being available.*

Group Lessons If there are a high number of beginner pupils applying, I may consider group lessons (3 or more pupils in a class) – the cost of these is dependent on the number of pupils in the group i.e. the more pupils in a group, the cheaper the fees will be.*

- The number of lessons varies between 10 and 14 per term.
- Fees for are due in advance of each term.
- Pupils parent/guardian are required to complete and sign a standard Musicians Union Contract and School Terms and Conditions which must be returned to myself or Mr. Munster (Head of Music) before the first lesson.

For more information on the excellent drum and percussion tuition I offer please feel free to visit my website at www.prodrumtuition.co.uk.
