

My name is Paul Edmonds and I teach the Trumpet. I studied at the Guildhall School of Music where I graduated in 1989. Since then I have worked as a Jazz Trumpeter, leading my own band at Ronnie Scott's Jazz Club on many occasions. I have also worked abroad, touring with various groups and have recorded many CDs.

I teach Beginners- Advanced through the Jazz or Classical graded system.

My fee is £150 for individual lessons (10 lessons of 25 minutes each) or £100 per term for paired lessons.

Fees are due in advance of each term. Parents/Guardians are required to complete and sign a Schools Terms and Conditions Form which must be returned to Mr Munster (Head of Music) before the first lesson.

My contact details are pauledmonds1968@gmail.com or 07958695804.
